One of the attractive features of the "Isle of Spice," which comes to the opera house on Saturday next, is the song, "The Goo Goo Man," sung by comedian Charles Pusey and twelve young and pretty little girls stammering and stuttering. This number is said to be one of the most sensational hits ever heard in musical comedy, and it is claimed that the audiences in other cities have invariably demanded from a dozen to fifteen encores, which is surely a record. Everyone will probably be whistling "The Goo Goo Man" after it is heard here.

The funeral of Teresa Kingston, the eight-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kingston, who died at their farm in Northfield, took place yesterday and interment was in St. Monica's cemetery in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Kingston moved from this city to their farm in Northfield last spring. Much sympathy is expressed by their friends in Barre, they having lost two children within a week. Their little girl Cecilia was buried a week ago yesterday, having died at the age of three years and two months of meningitis. The cause of Teresa's death was a lung trouble.

Presents the Acme of Realistic Motion Pictures

Programme Today

A Fair Exchange

Here's another of those popular Biograph. It is a free adaptation of George Ells's "Silas Marner." Great historical picture. High school pupils should see it—help them in English.

Our Country in Arms

Deeply interesting drama. First, children at play as soldiers; then as cadets; then, as they have grown older, marching away to war, leaving their sweethearts behind them. Later, the good, old, gray-haired G. A. R. men, it's really taken from life before and at the close of the Civil war.

A Comolli sings

Program

Across the Divide

It is one of Selig's fine Western pictures. Actual photos taken right in the great wild and woolly West, where every man carries a gun and might is right. Every man is his own lawyer—executioner.

Aero-plane Contest at Rheims

One of the best flying machine pictures ever seen locally. See the genuine race between two of the fastest ever made. It's a thriller.

Farmer's Treasure

Those who don't like this picture surely wouldn't like any picture. Our word, it's a good one.
